PROLOGUE

With orchestra fanfare and the director's cry, "places everybody," the dancing spotlight announces show time. So it is in the exciting world of entertainment, but no less enhancing is the beginning of a new school year. As the students hustle and bustle in a new experience under the careful direction of principal and teachers, a semblance of the American stage is re-enacted. In drawing a comparison, we hope to capture the minute by minute, day by day, pulse-beating excitement that is so much a part of these two activities.

Join us, then, as the dancing spotlight of fall and the football marching band fanfare announces show time . . . school time . . . Greenon school time . . . with an all new 1961 cast.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST 96-122

PRODUCERS

SUPERINTENDENT, Mr. R. Henry Campbell

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE:

My heartiest congratulations to the staff members of the 1961 yearbook. Your work is a beautiful remembrance of the many students and their activities that have made high school life such a wonderful experience.

I commend the members of the Class of 1961 for having finished the high school course of studies. I wish for each of you graduates success and happiness as you continue your search for the answers to life's problems.

The lessons you have learned at Greenon High School are only the beginning of your total education. Whether you continue your education as a college student or take a job and begin to work for a wage, remember, education is a relative term and tomorrow will demand relatively more than did yesterday.

Education is continuous. Strive always to learn something new and to do a better job from day to day.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Boyd Holsapple; Harold McCool, President; R. Henry Campbell, Superintendent of Schools; Hap Young; Wilbur Waddle, Vice-President; Daniel Byrum.

DIRECTOR

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE:

A wise man once said, "Getting educated is one thing, keeping educated is another." May you use the above saying as a guide in your plans after you graduate.

May I wish you all the best of luck and success as you venture into a new way of life.

PRINCIPAL, Mr. Terry Hirtzinger

CLERK OF THE BOARD
Mrs. Clara West

SECRETARY TO THE PRINCIPAL
Mrs. Betty Weingart

ASSISTANT

Minus the blistering "hot lights" and "idiot cards," Mr. Hastings skillfully directs his "Room 8 Players" through an imaginary afternoon "spectacular." The same room serves as host to College Preparatory English and Yearbook preparation. The director then leaves to counsel the destinies of the football hopefuls.

ABOVE ON STAGE: Judy Watkinson, Dave Lane. WITH CAMERA: Dave Rockwell.

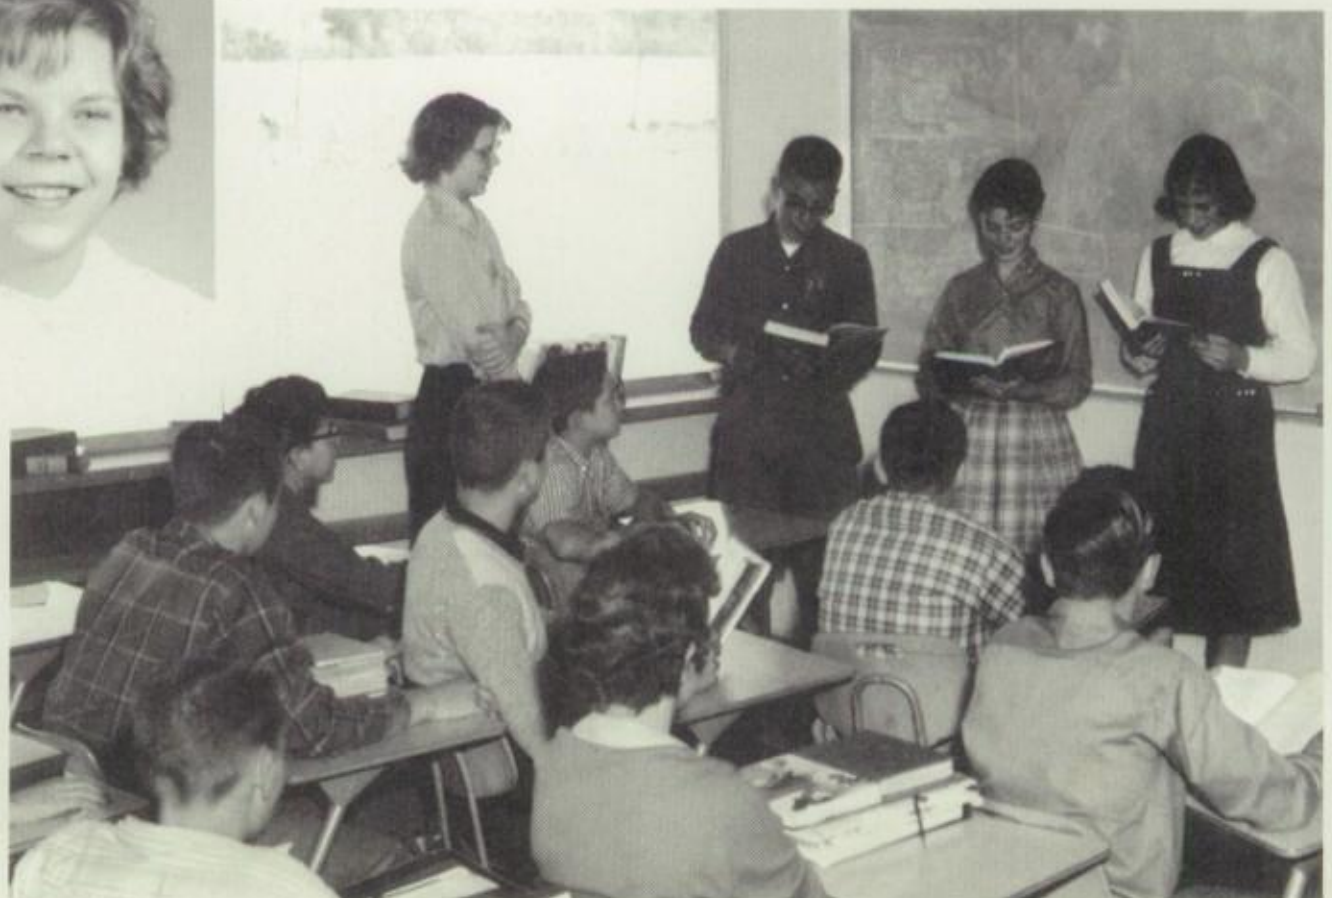

MR. HASTINGS

MRS. SMITH

Reading is an important part of English. Prose and Poetry books increase our reading skill, our vocabulary, and our knowledge of the English language. Mrs. Smith is the teacher of this English 9 class. She also teaches English 11 and is an advisor to the class of 1964.

BELOW: Mrs. Smith and her English 9 class listen as Dennis Lacy, Vickie Larson, and Donna Hildt read.

DIRECTORS

"This is so silly saying these things over and over." These French III students are using the new language laboratory. Here, Mrs. Spriggs demonstrates the use of this equipment to (left to right) Priscilla Burger, Bobbie Tracy, Judy Kline. Mrs. Spriggs teaches French I, II, III, and Junior English. She also advises the French Club and the National Honor Society.

MRS. SPRIGGS

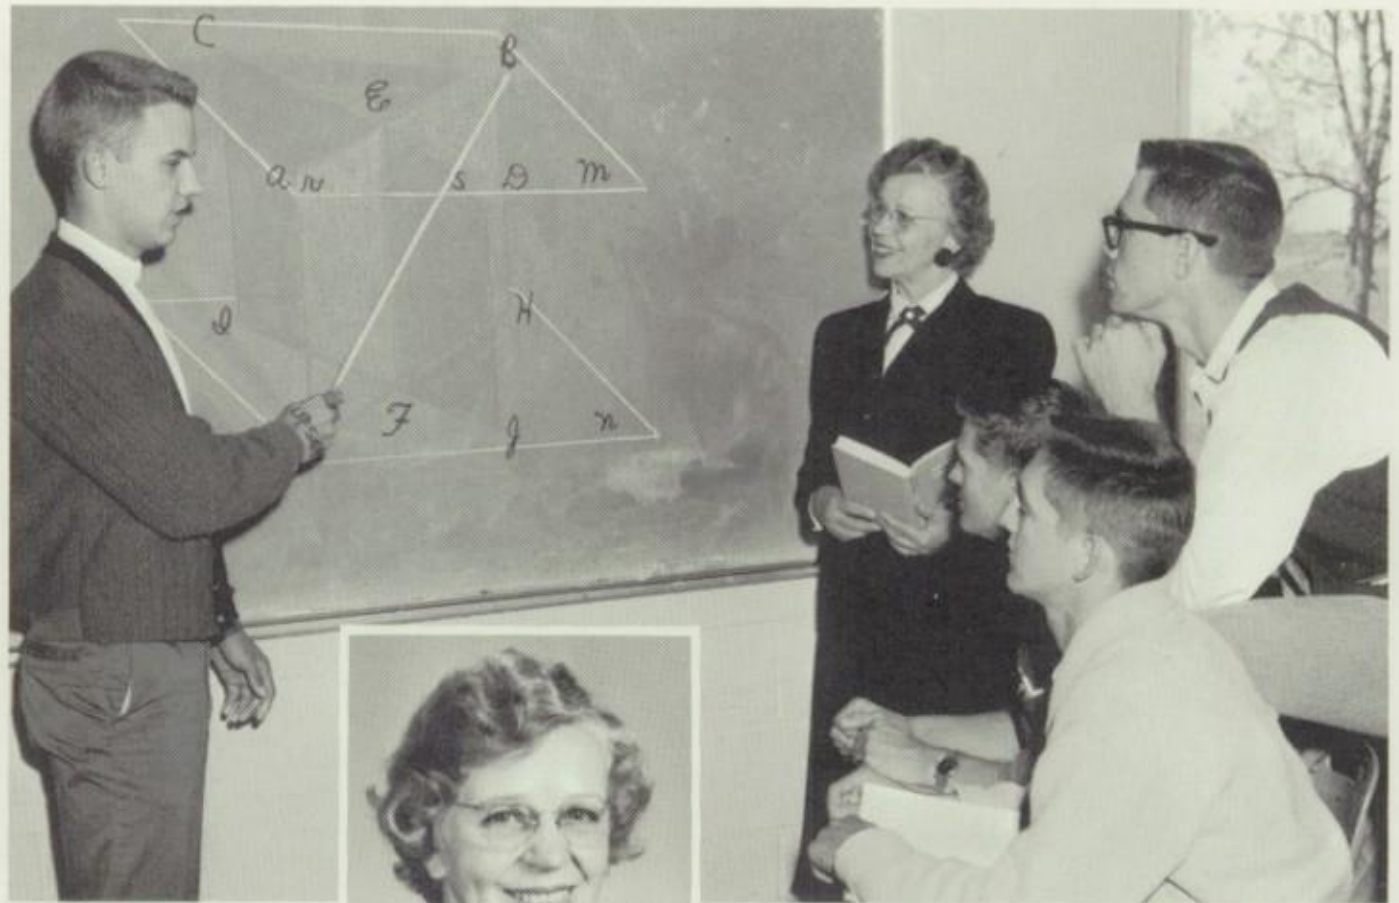

MISS ESTLE

Miss Estle yearly helps Ulysses in his searches and Caesar in his Gallic Wars in her Latin I and II classes. Yet, she still has time to be our efficient school librarian.

RIGHT: Mike Needles shows a drawing of the colosseum to the Latin II classes.

If you have taken Solid Geometry, you should be able to give the theorem for this figure. This is just one of the many theorems which Mrs. Hampshire teaches in her Solid Geometry class. Algebra I and II, Plane Geometry and Trigonometry are the other subjects taught by Mrs. Hampshire. She is the advisor of our school's Future Teachers of America Club.

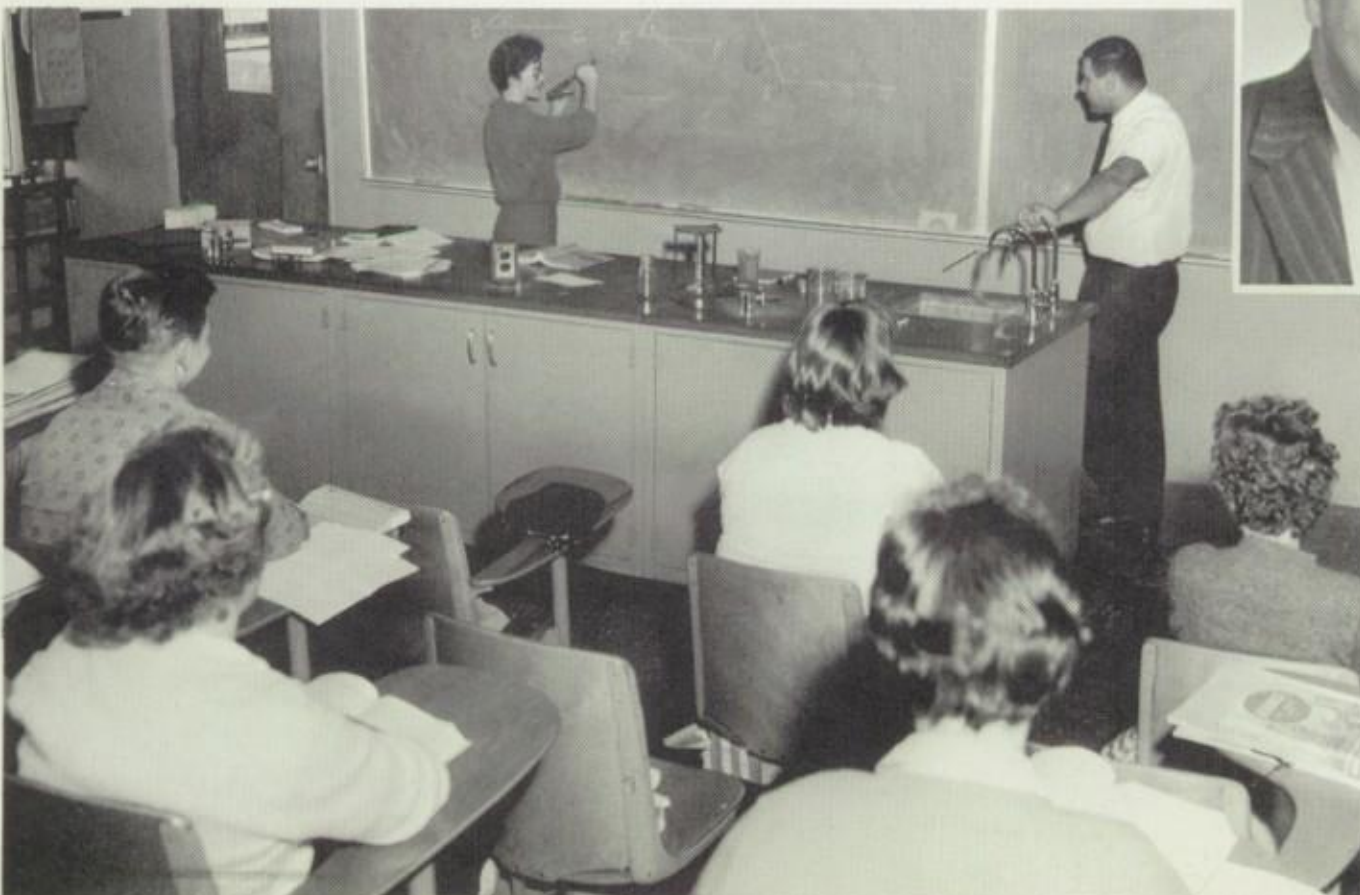

MRS. HAMPSHIRE

Do you know how to construct an angle? This problem comes up in General Mathematics and Mr. Shesman ably teaches how it is done. General Science is also taught by Mr. Shesman. Between times, he coaches football, basketball, and baseball.

LEFT: Marcia Denlinger and Mr. Shesman.

MRS. CAMPBELL

"Enjoy exotic, beautiful, and enchanting Congo," says guide Sue DesCombes as "Tour Director," Mrs. Campbell, supervises one of her three American History classes in current events. Mrs. Campbell also directs the junior and senior class plays as well as advising the class of 1963.

Let's see whether our state is considered Republican or Democratic in Congress. Parties play an important part of government today. Civics, taught by Mr. Roeth, is the study of the government, past and present. Mr. Roeth also teaches World Geography and is Greenon's Athletic Director and Basketball coach.

MR. ROETH

RIGHT: Dot Lauer, Vickie Herald, Dale Parish, Bobby Martineau.

ABOVE: This class of Sociology participates in a panel discussion on the social problems of our society. The panel members are

MR. DICKINSON

Richard Custis, Dale Parish, Peggy Bennett, Virginia Cavanaugh, Chris Wise.

BELOW: It seems it was worthwhile spending all that time looking up the scientific names of these things. Just look at what a nice display they make. These thoughts are expressed by the Biology class as they complete their insect and leaf collections for Mr. Graham. In addition to Biology and Physics, Mr. Graham teaches General Science and Chemistry, and assists the Camera Club, Science Club, and Yearbook photography.

ABOVE: Mr. Graham, Judy Watkinson, Judy Spurlock, and Jeanne Liggett.

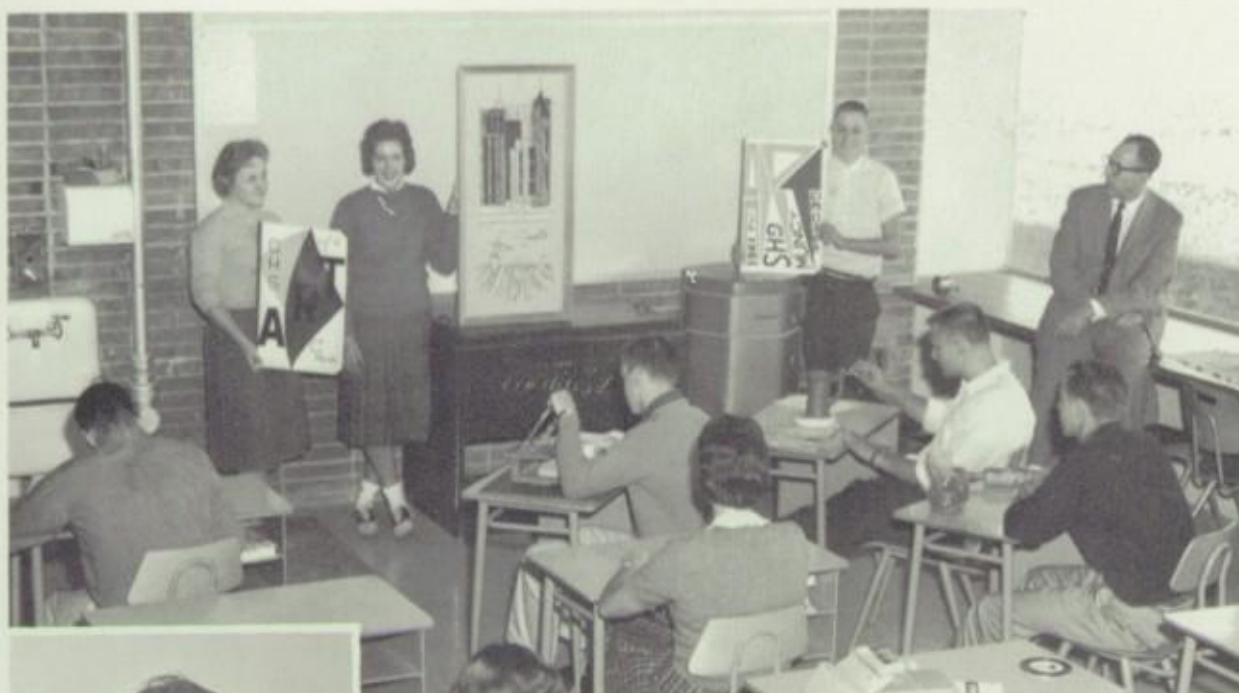

MR. GRAHAM

RIGHT: Ken Belford, Joe Grigsby, and Bill Rooney.

BELOW: It's hard to imagine that this little car and incline plane have a scientific principle involved. Mr. Graham's Physics class has learned one, along with many other principles having to do with such unscientific things as railroad tracks.

Displaying just a few of many projects, these art students, Vickie Herald, Patti Austin, Mike Needles, show the wide range of their abilities and activities. Mr. Warren supervises all high school art classes and the newly formed Art Club. Teaching General Business and advising the class of 1963 are his other duties.

MR. WARREN

MR. McKENZIE

Choosing the right college is an important decision for any high school student to make. Mr. McKenzie, a member of the Guidance Department, helps students with this decision as well as ones concerning a vocation and personal problems. ABOVE: Vickie Maurer and Mr. McKenzie.

With the rise of farm problems, Vocational Agriculture is a course all boys interested in farming should take. The many aspects of this course are taught by Mr. Mohler. Our school's Future Farmers of America Club participates in many activities ranging from parliamentary procedure contests to farming club-owned lands. The FFA as well as the class of 1962 is advised by Mr. Mohler.

Do you know the correct method of sewing, or do you just follow a hunch? If you want to learn how to sew, as well as learn all other aspects of home and family, Home Economics is the course for you to take. This class and Family Living are taught by Mrs. McCool. She also is an advisor to the class of 1961 and the Homemakers Club.

MRS. McCOOL

ABOVE: Phyllis Patton, Mrs. McCool, Becky Webb.

Learning to operate shop machines is a vital part of Industrial Arts classes. Here, Bill Miller and Ron Becker demonstrate the use of one of these machines. Industrial Arts, as well as Mechanical Arts, is taught by Mr. Markle. All the visual equipment is also under his direction.

Balancing the books is a time consuming and tedious job. These Bookkeeping students are working hard at this task. Mrs. Spencer teaches this class and several other commercial courses, Typing I, Economics, and Business Law. Speed Reading, which was added to our curriculum this year, is also taught by Mrs. Spencer.

MRS. SPENCER

To learn to type, one must first know the positions of all the letter, sign, and number keys. This can be done only by constant practice. Mrs. Franck is drilling her Personal Typing students in these lessons. Typing II, Office Practice, and Shorthand I and II are also taught by Mrs. Franck. In addition to her teaching duties, Mrs. Franck advises the Knight Times, our school paper, and aids the cheerleaders with their decisions.

MRS. FRANCK

LEFT: Sharon Cummings, Ruth Ann Skinner, Bob Hoss, Shari Johnston, Jim McKinney, Judy Conklin, and Mr. Giampetro.

MR. GIAMPETRO

Practice, practice, and more practice is necessary for the making of a good band. This year Mr. Giampetro proved this to be true by producing a trophy-winning marching band. At basketball games, his enthusiastic pep band entertained the crowds, and with the use of new equipment the concert band proves to be one of the best. Our director also teaches the new Music Appreciation class.

Singing is a form of expression. It can bring much enjoyment to a person's life. An appreciation of music can bring the same pleasure. Mrs. Cooper is choir and glee club director, is an advisor to the class of 1964, and teaches English 10.

RIGHT: Gail Roellig, Susan Palmer, Judy Spurlock, Nancy Parrish, Bonnie Morgan.

Those who mistakenly think sports are for boys only need to spend a day attending girls' gym classes and after school G.A.A. practices. Miss Blosser, girls' athletic director, has initiated many new ideas in sports and gym classes as well as in G.A.A. and the drill team.

MISS BLOSSER

Learning the parts of the body is a vital part of Health classes taught by Mr. Waters. Not only does he teach the parts of the mind and body, but he also teaches the use of them by coaching sports and advising the class of 1961. BELOW: Ruediger Schroer, Mr. Waters, Priscilla Burger, and Bob Hoss study the manikin.

MR. WATERS

STAGE

BELOW, JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Bill Muntean, Treasurer; Joan Palmer, Secretary; Richard Schlub, President; Richard Roellig, Vice-President.

Behind-the-scene work is necessary for the performance of a play to go smoothly. This work is done by the class officers. By performing their numerous duties they gain prestige and respect from their fellow classmates.

ABOVE, JUNIOR EXECUTIVE BOARD: Roger See, Larry Spahr, Joyce Swabey, Don Snyder, Bob Allen.

Because of the size of our classes it is impossible to have class meetings at all times necessary. Therefore each class elects an executive board to attend these meetings and express the opinions of the entire class. These representatives plan the special social events of their class along with the class officers and also collect the class dues.

BELOW, FRESHMAN EXECUTIVE BOARD: Sally Malson, Mike Watts, Gordon Goodfellow, Margaret Amato, Judy Parkin, Cheryl Majors.

CASTING DIRECTORS

The fourteen STUDENT COUNCIL members with Mr. Hirtzinger as advisor are elected each spring for the following year. The STUDENT COUNCIL has been quite active running the bookstore and concession stand and selling Greenon sweat shirts. They are also in charge of the annual fall homecoming events and chapel programs. Several new ideas, among these the student jury and honor study hall, were put into effect by this year's STUDENT COUNCIL.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: STANDING, Albert Conley, President; Bud Hillard, Vice-President. SEATED, Judy Kline, Recording Secretary; Tanis Spriggs, Corresponding Secretary; Donna Pinti, Treasurer.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS SONIA ESTERLINE, a member of the class of 1962, passed away as a result of a prolonged illness. The Chalice Staff joins her many friends and the Greenon faculty in paying tribute to this brave young lady. Sonia will be remembered for her cheerful disposition, service to her school, and example to others. May God watch over her in the eternal life.

National Honor Society member and recipient of the most valuable band award, Rudy Schroer tells of the Music Department.

Bud Hillard, Pres. of the National Honor Society and Vice-Pres. of the Student Council, talks of Leadership.

Mary Costin, National Honor Society member, speaks on Perfect Attendance.

Roger Randall, National Honor Society member, emphasizes the values of Scholarship.

Helen Friend, National Honor Society member, and recipient of the Babe Ruth Sportsmanship Award, stresses Athletics.

Mr. McCool presents Mr. Hastings with the Booster of the Year Award.

The Honor Day Banquet is an annual event sponsored by the Greenon High School Student Council and the National Honor Society. Its purpose is to recognize students publicly for their achievements in all fields of high school endeavor. The purpose and activities of each phase of high school life were explained by student speakers. Individual honors and awards were then made by the respective teachers or advisors.

Students who placed in the district or state on the scholarship tests are: B. Havercamp, B. Holsapple, S. Barnes, B. Lockman, M. Weaver, S. Demmy, P. Goldberg, K. Cartwright, J. Barnes, M. Rohrer, K. Skinner, and M. Wipert.

SENIOR WINDUP

We solemnly enter for Baccalaureate.

BACCALAUREATE

Seventy-nine attentive seniors, accompanied by their relatives, friends, and school faculty, were quite inspired by Dr. Neal D. Newlin's Baccalaureate sermon entitled "The Danger of Living."

The evening marked the beginning of the end for the Class of '61 as they donned their caps and gowns for the first of two very important evenings.

Spiritual strength must have been somewhat tempered with the sadness of culmination of twelve years spent toward this goal.

The "Mob," Bob Carter, Rudy Schroeer, Bob Hoss, and Steve Demmy give their version of "Waterloo."

We enjoy punch and cookies afterward.

Accompanying Dr. Newlin, a former minister of the Enon Knob Prairie Church, was Rev. Roland Fierce of the Enon Methodist Church who delivered the invocation and benediction. The Greenon High School choir presented two numbers, "Bless Us Oh Lord" and "I'll Walk With God."

SENIOR DAY

On Senior Day, the seniors showed to the whole school the accomplishments and talents they had acquired during their twelve years of school. The use of skits such as those shown below helped them to achieve their purpose.

Patti Austin, Judy Kline, Bobbie Tracy, and Vickie Herald do a modern jazz dance.

Graduates with a 3.5 or better average: S. Demmy, J. Barnes, J. Kline, R. Schroeder, H. Friend, M. Wipert, M. Rohrer, and W. Hillard.

Class President, Louise Ehman, presents Mr. Hirtzinger with class gift.

COMMENCEMENT

As Mr. Glenn Massman spoke of "It's Your Future--What About It?," Greenon's 79 seniors, tearful of eye, gladdened of heart, and thankful of signed diplomas must have wondered what the future will hold for them. Certainly, for the 41 who are contemplating further education, it will mean more study and eventually another diploma. For 38 others, the task of making a living is of utmost importance. But whatever the plans for the future, a milestone has been reached and most certainly this was an evening of "Commencement."

Sue Griffith passes from senior to alumna as she changes her tassel.

Jeanette Simmons and Jim Schumann.

Sue Southward receives her diploma from School Board President Harold McCool.

We happily leave after Commencement.

General Mills, a company recognizing the importance of personal qualities and a sense of values, administers a test to all senior girls and, thus, determines the winner of the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award.

The Parent-Teachers Association in co-operation with the Future Teachers of America presents an annual scholarship award to an outstanding senior boy or girl upon faculty recommendation.

COMMERCIAL AWARD:
Mrs. Franck presents Jeanette Simmons with her award.

The year's most Outstanding Business Student is honored with an award called the Commercial Award. The recipient must have completed successfully the Commercial Course among other qualifications to include co-operation, character, and service.

BABE RUTH AWARD:
Helen Friend

In memory of the name sake who represented fair play and versatile athletic ability, the coaching staff and girls' physical education instructor select the most outstanding boy and girl in this category.

BABE RUTH AWARD:
Mike Flora

AWARDS

Each year the alumni achievement award is given to a senior girl or boy who has exhibited above average scholarship, intends to further his education, and possesses qualities of leadership, character, and service. In co-operation with the Alumni Association, the faculty recommends the annual recipient.

In addition to the above award, Helen also received the Future Teachers of America scholarship, a small, but appreciated, financial award presented to an outstanding future teacher.

PRINCE OF PEACE:
Janet Barnes

With an inspiring win at both local and county levels of competition, Miss Janet Barnes kept alive Greenon's fine record of Prince of Peace representation. With an oration entitled "The Church's One Foundation," Janet defeated four local contestants and three county adversaries before going down to defeat in district competition.

Through hard work, the French Club was able to offer for the first time a scholarship to one of its members who was outstanding in the French department and who plans further study.

Certainly one of the most treasured awards to any senior would be the Citizenship Award. A senior boy and girl are selected annually by the faculty on the basis of general co-operation and service to the school.

Pride in one's school can only be shown by the service one renders for his school. The many activities and organizations at Greenon offer the student an outlet for natural energy as well as an opportunity to aid in the administering of school affairs. In addition to the self-satisfaction of having helped others, Greenon recognizes this effort through the "Torch and Shield Service Club." This organization ranges from the "100" Club, that must amass 100 points offered for various activities, to the "Knight Club" which will have 475 points with a minimum of 70 in four categories. Each year the Torch and Shield Service Club recognizes the most outstanding senior, in terms of service, with an award entitled "Knight of Knights." The Class of '61 sported double winners with Joyce Cook and Steve Demmy each having accumulated more than 800 points.

"Congratulations" JOHN L. KLINE, Architect

The purpose of Greenon's chapter of the National Honor Society is to recognize outstanding students. For membership, each student must excel in four fields of endeavor: character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Only 10% of the Junior Class and 5% of the Senior Class are eligible. Membership in this organization is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a high school student. With the help of the sponsor, Mrs. Spriggs, this year's group held an inspiring induction service, sponsored a movie, and took a day-long field trip.

Janet Barnes pins new member Mary Wipert.

During the induction ceremony, Mary Costin, Secretary, and Steve Demmy tie NHS bands on Judy Haulman and a startled Becky Webb.

At the first meeting of this year's French Club it was decided to have as many money-making projects as possible so that the club could take a trip to a French restaurant, Pigall's, in Cincinnati. Bake sales which were held on Thursdays after school were the prime money making projects of the club. In addition, the club sponsored a very successful skating party, a sock hop, and took over the concession stand at a home football game. These activities made most of the money for the trip, but semester dues and penny collections at every meeting helped.

At last, the club's goal was reached when, on May 8, the French Club journeyed to Cincinnati and to Pigall's Restaurant where the club members had a delicious meal. After lunch, the club toured the beautiful Taft museum.

At our second meeting, Paul Goldberg gave us a very interesting talk about France. During another meeting, Priscilla Burger showed us pictures of France and told us some interesting things about the country.

NURSES CLUB

The Greenon Future Nurses Club, sponsored by Mrs. Donald Dower, is the newest club at Greenon. In the past two years it has attempted to interest girls in a career in professional nursing, and to educate them in the requirements and duties of nursing, as well as their own personal qualifications. The officers are: Pres., Janet Barnes, Vice Pres. Phyllis Patton, Sec., Doris Fritz, Treas., Donna Fry.

The Greenon Chapter of Future Farmers of America has had a very successful year. The year began with five boys and Mr. Mohler going to the national convention in Kansas City. The parliamentary procedure team received a gold medal for the second year in a row. Dave Welsheimer received a gold medal for public speaking, was the Star District Grain Producer, and was Greenon's first State Farmer. The chapter helped with the co-op farm owned by area FFA groups. The chapter finished up the year by going to Wooster, Ohio to the agricultural experiment station.

The Greenon Homemaker's Club is open to any girl enrolled in Home Economics. Its aim is to create an interest in homemaking. This year its 27 active members participated in many activities, among them a Sock Hop, at which cakes were given as door prizes; a style show at Open House where the members wore styles of the past as well as the present, (two of these models are shown on this page), a visit to the Clark County Home; and numerous bake sales. The highlight of the year was a Mother-Daughter Banquet held at the Ker-Deen Inn with 48 in attendance. The club members have also secured Pen Pals from foreign lands and had an interesting talk by Mrs. Nadia Brooks, a native of Czechoslovakia.

The Art Club is one of the new clubs which was formed this year. To promote interest in the club several field trips were taken. One of these was to the Wittenberg campus, where club members studied the architecture of Weaver Chapel and toured the ceramic lab, the paint department, and the graphics lab.

Baked goods and candles made by club members were sold to make money for a kiln guard for Greenon's art department and for use on field trips.

The Art Club also participated in the Art and Music Show, held on April 14.

The Greenon chapter of the Future Teachers of America has always been one of the most active clubs in the high school. This year the major objectives of the club have been to interest capable students in the possibility of teaching as a career and to enlarge the annual scholarship which is awarded to an outstanding senior member.

The F.T.A. has arranged and carried out a Teacher Appreciation Day, several bake sales, and substitute teaching in various classes.

The purpose of the Science Club is to promote science. It is becoming very important in this day and age with all the nuclear power and space projects. In the middle of the year our club decided to really promote science, so eight members with projects went to Hustead and Enon to show them. The students seemed to be very interested. Every year there is a Science Fair. All school students with projects may participate. This year we were very proud of Robert Hoss with his project "Heat and the Transistor." Bob received "superior" in the district and from there went to State and received an "excellent." The Science Club went with Bob to the University of Cincinnati where the fair was held.

MISS CHALICE OF 1961

MISS JUDY KLINE

Selected from all the senior girls in a secret ballot cast by members of the Chalice staff, our 1961 "Miss Chalice" is our own devoted editor, Miss Judy Kline. In addition to being a lovely queen and most efficient Chalice editor, Judy has also been quite active in other school affairs. She graduated third in her class, was an active member in both Student Council and The National Honor Society, belonged to the French club and the Torch and Shield service club, participated in the choir and girls glee club as well as both class plays and preceded her editorship of the Chalice with two years on the staff. We have indeed been proud of Judy's many accomplishments, and of course are prejudiced toward her most recent honor, Miss Chalice of 1961.

PLAYWRIGHTS —

With the sounds of an eager "audience" creeping backstage, the "playwrights" of "Chalice VI," who are also part of the large "cast," hurriedly prepare themselves for the "big show," a complete year of gathering every bit of school life for a record of the future. We are eager for the September opening, so . . . "on with the show."

WITH THE DIRECTOR, PRODUCERS, AND SPONSORS WATCHING PROUDLY FROM THE "WINGS," (ABOVE) THE CAST OF "CHALICE VI" TAKES ITS FINAL CURTAIN CALL. WITH THE CLOSING OF A SUCCESSFUL YEAR'S RUN, THE CAST NOW LOOKS INTENTLY TOWARD THE FUTURE AND A NEW SCRIPT. THE CRITICS WILL OFFER RAVE NOTICES, HELPING THE CAST TO SECURE NEW AND BETTER ROLES. BUT, AS THE CAST LEAVES THE THEATRE FOR THE LAST TIME, (LEFT) THEY REALIZE THAT NEW ROLES WILL HAVE TO BE AS A RESULT OF THEIR OWN MERIT AND FUTURE ACCOMPLISHMENTS.
